PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hello everyone! The weather this month has been very strange, snow one day, rain the next and spotty sunshine in between. So hopefully we will have some consistent sunshine through the end of the month.

I would like to sincerely express our appreciation to the wonderful guest speakers we had last month, Mr. Roger Nielson and Mr. Duane Bylund, for their fantastic presentation about Camp Floyd and Johnston's army. The historical information and artifacts they have found and shared with us was amazing.

Our Medals chairman Don Swain will have order forms for our new 2010 club medals.

This month's mini-display will be presented by Boyd Pickering- Gold coins.

It is an honor to have our own Mr. Bob Campbell, owner of "ALL ABOUT COINS" for our speaker this month. He will be talking to us about cleaning coins (old and new.) Bob has been interested in coins since he was 12 years old. He is a former ANA President and a leading expert on Utah Trade Tokens and on the detection of counterfeit coins. This will be a fantastic and very informative evening. So come join us and bring some of your old dirty coins and Bob will show you how to clean them at the meeting.

A reminder that the NUTS Club Coin Show is coming up on June 25th & 26th so please sign up at the May meeting as a volunteer to help at the front desk. If you have any questions please check with Brandon Phillips our V.P. and Coin Show Chairman.

With the current prices of gold let's all hope for golden sunshine and a Gold Coin around the next corner. See ya at the meeting.

APRIL SPEAKERS

Nuts Club members were fortunate to have guest speakers Duane A. Bylund and Roger B. Nielson return for presentations on the history of Old Camp Floyd. One cannot help but be awestruck at the adventures and knowledge of these gentlemen...

Mr. Bylund is the author of the book "In Search of Johnston's Army." Mr. Nielson is the author of "Roll Call at Old Camp Floyd, Utah Territory."

Duane A. Bylund

Together with Nielson and others, Bylund spent 15 years searching the area with metal detectors, painstakingly documenting artifacts recoveries and locations. Along with many historically significant items, Bylund has recovered an astonishing 70+ gold coins.

Mr. Nielson's book and research focuses on military no-

Roger B Nielson

Through a chance conversation with co-workers about metal detecting in the mid 1980's, Bylund learned of an 1847-C five dollar gold piece that had been found West of Cedar Fort, Utah. Theorizing that something of historical significance had occurred in the area, he embarked on research that led him to the study of Johnston's Army and to a map reference of "Old Camp Floyd", a much different location than the Camp Floyd located at Fairfield, Utah.

menclature, weaponry, individual soldiers and their personal stories as well as the configuration of units assembled under Johnston's Army. Mr. Bylund's book details the recovery of coins, unit insignia, military equipment, and personal items and offers insight into the layout of the encampment based on the type of item found and the location recovered.

FREEDOM IS NOT FREE

By Kelly Strong

I watched the flag pass by one day.
It fluttered in the breeze.
A young Marine saluted it,
and then he stood at ease.
I looked at him in uniform
So young, so tall, so proud,
He'd stand out in any crowd.
I thought how many men like him
Had fallen through the years.
How many died on foreign soil?
How many mothers' tears?
How many pilots' planes shot down?
How many died at sea?
How many foxholes were soldiers' graves?
No, freedom isn't free.

I heard the sound of TAPS one night,
When everything was still
I listened to the bugler play
And felt a sudden chill.
I wondered just how many times
That TAPS had meant "Amen,"
When a flag had draped a coffin
Of a brother or a friend.
I thought of all the children,
Of the mothers and the wives,
Of fathers, sons and husbands
With interrupted lives.
I thought about a graveyard
At the bottom of the sea
Of unmarked graves in Arlington.
No, freedom isn't free.

CUMBERLAND DIG May 22-23, 2010 Please use your judgment on the weather if you will attend or not

This is a reminder about the opportunity to do some fun detecting/screening at the old Wyoming ghost town of Cumberland on May 22-23, 2010. Members of several clubs will be participating. There will be a few camping over. There are also Motels that are close.

If you plan on joining us please remember to:

Watch out for critters (snakes and ticks)Bring plenty of your own water and snacksSun screenJacket in case of inclement weatherExtra batteries/detector (if you have one)

Screen/shovelFill in any holes you create PLEASE

Those of you who have been to this location please assist those who have not been there before.

DIRECTIONS

Go 13 miles east of Evanston, Wyoming on I-80. Take the Kemmerer Exit and get on Highway 189 going North. Go 22 miles to Carter Exit. Go East a short distance (about 1/4 to 1/2 mile) then turn left on a dirty road. Go another short distance and turn north (left) on another dirt road. This road is very rocky and trailers are not recommended. This starts Cumberland 1 area. Keeping on the dirt road about 1 to 2 miles is Cumberland 2. Keep traveling and you will go through all of Cumberland. Camping will be at the north end of Cumberland. The easiest way to reach this is to stay on 189 and go approximately 5 miles from the Carter Exit. You have gone too far if you reach an old saloon/bar/hotel. Turn around and at the top of the hill is a nice dirt road with a gate that reads "KEEP CLOSED." This is the recommended camping area. All of Cumberland is visible from Highway 189. You will be able to see anyone that is digging. You can also park on the side of the road and climb the fence.

A nun was sitting at the airport waiting for her flight to Chicago. She looked over & saw one of those weight machines that tells your fortune.

Deciding to give it a try, she went to the machine, stepped on the scale and put her nickel in. Out came a card saying, "You are a nun, you weigh 128 Lbs and you're going to Chicago".

The nun sat back down & told herself the machine probably gives the same reading to Everyone. The more she thought about it, the more curious she was, so she decided to try it again.

She went back to the machine and put another nickel in. Out came a card, "You are a nun, you weigh 128 lbs, you are going to Chicago and you're going to play a fiddle.

The nun said to herself, I know this is wrong. I've never played a musical instrument In my life. She went back to her seat. Then, a cowboy came and sat down, putting his fiddle on the seat between them.

Without thinking, she opened the case, took out the fiddle and started playing. Surprised at what she'd done, she looked at the machine and decided to try again.

She went back and put in another nickel. The card said "You are a nun, you weigh 128 lbs, you are going to Chicago & you're going to break wind."

Now, she knew the machine was wrong. She'd never broken wind in public in her life. But getting off the scale, she slipped and straining to keep from falling, she broke wind.

Stunned, she sat down and looked at the machine, thinking I have to try this again. She went back to the machine and dropped in another nickel.

Another Card came out. It read, "You are a nun, you weigh 128 lbs, you've fiddled & farted around & missed your flight to Chicago

LIFE IS A JOURNEY SO ENJOY THE RIDE

By Brandon Phillips

My name is Brandon Phillips and I am an Operator/ Fire-fighter at the Tesoro Salt Lake Refinery. On Jan. 19, 2007 I experienced something that changed my life forever. I was on shift when my wife called the control room and the next thing I heard on the radio is "you need to call your wife now." I called her and could barely understand her. She was very upset and crying. The only thing I got from the brief phone conversation was that I needed to get to Primary Children's Medical center immediately. My wife was up there with my 11 month old son Payton and was waiting for results from a blood test. Later that evening the Doctor met with us to inform us that Payton had Leukemia and to plan on making the hospital our home for the next few years.

As a father this was tough to swallow. I had pictured my boy playing basketball and catching touchdowns, making the crowd go wild. In the blink of an eye our world had taken a 360 degree turn. I was a young father willing to do anything to give my son everything and yet I couldn't take his cancer away. Feeling helpless that night I got on my knees and said a prayer because I needed some strength. Blood transfusions and Chemotherapy began immediately and his hair soon fell out. I could only ask why? How could such a precious, innocent child have to endure so much pain and discomfort? My wife and I would be lying if we said this has been easy because it has been a huge challenge with highs and lows. Through all this we have been so blessed to meet some wonderful people that we may not have had the opportunity to meet. Payton loves going to the hospital. He calls the nurses and doctors his friends and asks, "When do I get to go play with my friends at my hospital?" We cannot thank the Nurses and Doctors enough. During the last three and a half years of treatment Payton wasn't able to go many places due to his low immune system and risk of getting sick. He would ask, "Dad, when I get better can I go four wheeling or can I go to the football game with you?" He never once complained about having cancer. He loves life and has taught us to love life as well no matter what challenges we may all face. Payton fits the quote "To perform like a Champion you must practice like one." Three and a half years later and all his Chemotherapy complete Payton scored his touchdown and won his battle with cancer on March 30, 2010. What a Champion!

Payton has had a lot of support through his older brother Hunter, family and friends. This last month we had a Turnaround at the Salt Lake Refinery and I would like to give an example of what great friends and co workers I have. A couple Operators got together and thought it would be cool to raise a little money and get Payton a gift in celebration of him completing Chemotherapy. As word got out about Payton more and more people wanted to contribute. The numbers grew and they raised enough money to buy Payton a four wheeler and a gift card for Payton and his older brother Hunter to purchase whatever they wanted, so they got a Wii. When they presented this to me after one of our turnover meetings I was in shock, the joy they brought Payton and his brothers face will never be forgotten. I am so grateful to work with such a great group of people who have supported me and have been there for me, words will never fully show my appreciation. Payton is now four years old and loving life more than ever. Payton has taught me that "LIFE IS A JOURNEY SO ENJOY THE RIDE."

Payton is very excited to attend the NUTS club regularly with his older brother Hunter. He has many friends here at the NUTS club and will make many more. As it has been stated before "The greatest treasures we have are our friends and family." We're proud to be N.U.T.S.
